

PROGRAM CONTROL

The Fund's General Assembly is the highest governing body of the Program, and its powers include:

Approval of the program, making changes and additions to the program; Approval of the planned annual budget (estimate) of the program.

In the Program's planned annual budget (estimated) where the planned amount needs to be adjusted by more than 10 (ten) percent change.

The implementation period of the program is from

PROGRAM PARTICIPANTS

Program participants are:

Donors - legal entities and individuals who have contributed funds to the Fund for the implementation of the Program.

Humanitarian aid - programs for the supply of essential goods (services) in the event of natural disasters, goods and services, programs to combat COVID-19, reduce vulnerability to natural disasters and disasters in the future.

Social programs - Programs to improve the lives of citizens, assistance in critical situations, financial assistance.

Environmental programs - Programs for the protection and improvement of ecology, protection of flora and fauna, industry organizations' connection with climate change and environmental pollution.

Donor programs - Programs that highlight upcoming and ongoing work of programs in the media services field.

The Foundation programs the scope of International Foundations' work in the implementation of humanitarian, social and environmental activities. Social sponsorship programs for the implementation of activities, projects for the creation of employment for the disabled

